Operations Are Only Being Prosecuted on the Russian Front

ADVANCE TOWARD BRAILA

Is Being Made By Field Marshal Von Mackensen In Effort to Take Great Rumanian Storehouse On the Lower Danube—Activity On the Franco-Belgian Front

Events on the European battlefields are summarized from reports from capitols to the Associated Press as follows:

While the peace discussions are proceeding, active military operations, except in such remote fields as those of Egypt and the Tigris, are being vigorously prosecuted only on the Rumanian front.

In this war area the latest reports show Field Marshal von Mackensen making new headway in his advance toward Braila, the great Rumanian grain and storehouse on the lower Danube.

The taking of Filipești placed von Mackensen's forces little more than 30 miles from this objective. On the other side of the Danube, meanwhile, the Teutonic Dobruja army, apparently comprising chiefly Bulgarian troops, is hammering away at the bridgehead of Matchin, almost directly opposite Braila. The clearing of the remaining Russians from Dobruja thus seems a possibility, not only by the direct attack but through the advance in Wallachia, which if it succeeds in reaching Braila would be able to take the Matchin position under artillery fire in flank and rear from across the Danube.

On the Franco-Belgian front the artillery has been active in some sectors and the aviators have been busy, but the infantry arm of the service on both sides is being held well to its positions except for occasional trench raids and patrol operations.

Some possible developments of interest are indicated from the Verdun region where a heavy bombardment east of the Meuse, between the Vacherauville and Vaux sectors, is reported by Paris.

ESTABLISHMENT

Of Institution by State for Treatment of Indigent Crippled Children May Become Reality.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Columbus, Dec. 27.—Based upon a recent survey made of crippled children in Cleveland, it is estimated by the state commission which is preparing data for the legislature with a view to establishing a state institution for the treatment of indigent crippled children, that there are approximately 700 children in the state who should be treated in such a hospital.

The Cleveland survey showed 996 crippled children under 16 years of age in Cuyahoga county. Estimating that 5 per cent. of these are indigent this would give Cuyahoga county 90 children in need of such an institution and from 675 to 700 in the entire state. The state commission meets here tomorrow to complete its recommendations to the legislature.

TORNADO

In Central Arkansas Takes Toll of Twelve Lives

COMMUNICATION CUT OFF

In Storm Swept District and When Re-established It May Develop That Casualty List May Be Greatly Increased—Apprehension Is Felt Regarding State Farm Convicts

Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 27.—Twelve persons were killed and 23 injured in the tornado which swept over central Arkansas late yesterday according to reports received today. It was feared districts not yet heard from would add to the casualty list. Estimates of property damage ran as high as $3,000,000.

A tremendous downpour of water and a high wind accompanied the storm and raindrops today were falling in torrents. High water and torn telegraph lines. No trains had arrived in this city up to noon today from Pine Bluff.

Much apprehension was felt here today regarding the fate of the state convict farm at Tucker, southeast of here where 325 state prisoners were at work. The farm was believed to have been directly in the storm's path and as all wire connection with it was lost when the tornado first descended, it was feared some of the convicts might have escaped during the confusion. J. R. Burkett, warden of the state penitentiary here, is on his way to the farm with a strong detachment of guards.

Passengers arriving here today brought further reports of the wiping out of a negro settlement at Keo, between here and Tucker with the loss of 17 lives. Accurate information on the situation there, however, is lacking.

The tornado struck the ground a few miles north of Pine Bluff, and cutting a path four miles wide, assumed a northeasterly course and finally wore out itself in the vicinity of Duvall Bluff and Des Arc. Many homes were set on fire by the lightning which attended the storm.

The death of three persons and the injury of five others are reported from Carlisle, 23 miles east of Little Rock. Those dead were three little girls, Choice and Allie Padgett and Frances Snow. The parents of the Padgett children and a son were severely injured when their home was wrecked. Mrs. W. S. Snow and Mrs. Harold Snow were injured. Several houses were blown down in that neighborhood.

Passengers arriving last night on a train that passed through the storm area described the scenes of destruction, but had no authentic information on the number killed and injured.

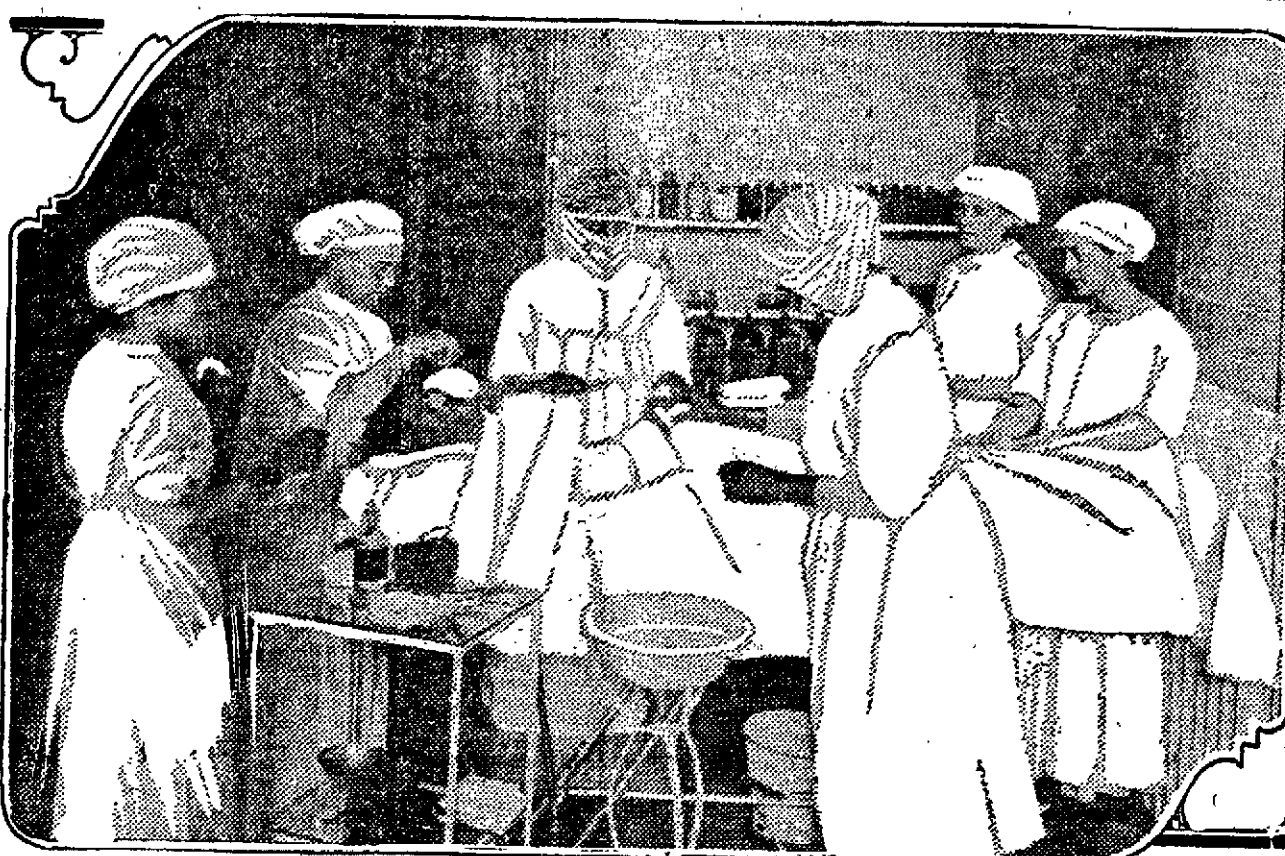

"We saw furniture in tree tops," said one passenger. "Wires were blown down, trees uprooted or snapped off, and the ground was covered with wreckage. Several times our train was forced to stop until the crew cleared the track. Near Heywood we saw a house on fire, apparently from lightning. There were terrible flashes of lightning and torrents of rain."

"At one station a man brought aboard some pine twigs, which he said must have been blown from a forest 12 miles away."

"At Keo we heard a report that a settlement near there had been de-

GOVERNMENT

Is Investigating Charge of Discrimination in the Distribution of Coal Cars.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 27.—Federal investigation of the charge that coal operators in the Kanawha and New River fields are being discriminated against in the distribution of coal cars was commenced today by the department of justice. W. G. Barnhart, district attorney, took up the question and two agents from the department began work in the field. Mr. Barnhart said that while coal operators along the Baltimore and Ohio, Norfolk and Western and Chesapeake and Ohio railroads were getting from forty to fifty per cent. of their car requirements, operators along the Kanawha and Michigan and its branch lines were suffering losses estimated at from $200,000 to $300,000 a month because of lack of cars. They claim that they will be compelled to close all of their mines in the New River and Kanawha fields unless the shortage is relieved.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] London, Dec. 27.—In formal discussions and consultations are proceeding for settlement of the Irish question, says the Manchester Guardian. Home rule for all of Ireland is the basis of the suggestions, which do not contemplate the exclusion of Ulster.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Cleveland, Dec. 27.—With the milk embargo, in effect 12 days, at an end, the city today received its normal supply of milk for the first time in nearly two weeks. The price was advanced as a result of the difficulty, however, and is now 10 cents a quart instead of nine cents as previously. The embargo was lifted last night when producers and distributors agreed on a compromise price of 22½ cents a gallon instead of 20 cents as previously. The producers asked 23 cents.

TO CLOSE ALL NEGOTIATIONS WITH MEXICANS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, Dec. 27.—In the absence of any reply from Gen. Carranza to the insistence of the American commissioners that he ratify or reject the protocol signed at Atlantic City, Secretary Lane, chairman of the American Commissioners, took the first step today toward closing the negotiations.

He sent to Dr. J. R. Mott and Judge George Gray, the other members of the American commission, requests to meet him here some time this week. At that meeting there will be agreed upon the details for bringing to an end the conference of the Mexican-American joint commission.

The only communication from the Mexicans received today was a note from the secretary of the Mexican commission, sent last night, in which it was said that no reply from General Carranza has been received.

Annual Meeting Being Held at Albany, N. Y., Will Make Number of Recommendations.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Albany, N. Scientists from all parts of the country, including 36 state geologists are here for the sessions.

During the meetings, favorable action probably will be taken on the recommendation of the National Academy of Sciences to President Wilson that delegates be appointed to a national research council. The object of the council, it was explained today by Dr. John M. Clarke, geologist of New York state, and president of the geological society is the "mobilization of the scientific forces of the country for efficiency so that the scientists in the United States can better play their parts in all known activities of science and more fully develop the country's resources."

He declared that the alliance with Great Britain and the convention with France were becoming stronger and called attention also to the new convention with Russia, which he termed a matter for congratulation. The emperor explained that he had ordered the ministers to draft bills necessary for the development of the country "keeping in mind the world situation" and asked the diet to cooperate in passing these measures. The house was then adjourned to January 21.

German Agents Have Arrived At The Hague

Ostensibly to Arrange the Preliminaries for Peace Conference as Suggested in Reply to Note of President Wilson—Dispatch From The Hague States Delegates Are Seeking Hotel Accommodations

LONDON PAPERS COMMENT ON GERMAN PEACE MOVE

Satirical Over Proposals As Laid Down In the Wilson Note—Claim German Government Welcomes Opportunity to Push Forward Its Own Proposal For Ending War—Asks Government to Give President Wilson Courteous Reply and Then Continue War As Energetically As Possible—Officials at Washington Do Not Look For Results to Be Immediately Apparent But Expect Way to Be Paved Carefully and Slowly

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] London, December 27, 11:55 A. M.—A dispatch from The Hague to the Exchange Telegraph company says German agents have arrived at The Hague to make preliminary arrangements for German delegates to the peace conference suggested in the German reply to President Wilson's note.

The dispatch follows: "In view of the preparatory meeting of delegates to a peace conference suggested in the German reply to President Wilson, German agents have arrived at The Hague and are making inquiries for hotel accommodations for German delegates."

The promptness of the German government's reply to President Wilson's note is characterized by the evening newspapers as evidence of Germany's eagerness to bring the war to an end. The Standard says: "It would be a mistake to neglect the German peace manoeuvres, but it would be even more fatal to waste time over them. We trust the government will give President Wilson a perfectly courteous but also a definite reply and then get on with the war as energetically as possible."

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Germany has not been slow to seize the advantages given her by President Wilson's maladroit diplomacy. It would be a real triumph for Germany to have herself recognized as the victor of the war. The power whose subjects her submarines drowned with impunity and which lectured her in the name of all the cardinal virtues. It would teach the world that by letting the Americans do the talking Germany understands how to get her own way eventually in the sphere of practical politics. The studied impartiality of the American note supplies Germany with a coat of white wash of which she was badly in need."

Germany proposes an immediate conference of belligerents, which appears to her to be the most promising way of promoting a fissure in the entente. The allies have only one possible attitude to this: namely, they will hold no discussion with an unpunished criminal or with a power whose most solemn engagements are mere scraps of paper. If Mr. Wilson's real object was to elicit a plain statement of the aims and terms of both sides, Britain's answer shows that he failed.

"It did not require a note to procure a plain statement of the allied cause. Up on the German side the invitation meets with summary dismissal. The ill conceived note has been frustrated, and the most dignified course now would be its frank withdrawal."

The following is from the Westminster Gazette: "For two or three days the pretense was kept up that the American proposals were an unfriendly attempt to snatch 'the prize of victory' from the German people but this clearly is not at all the view of the German government, which sees in it, a welcome opportunity to improve the occasion and at the same time push forward its own proposal for stopping the war. President Wilson is not to blame for this and we should be very unwise to rush to the conclusion that he expected to receive this answer and was to that extent playing into the hands of the Germans."

Commenting on a Washington dispatch saying President Wilson was inspired by the desire to give the belligerents, especially Germany, a better excuse for defining their conceptions of a possible settlement and the German reply that an immediate exchange of views was the most appropriate road in order to reach the desired result, the Westminster Gazette says: "The German government can scarcely be so naive as to suppose the allied governments would surrender hostilities or enter into a conference with an enemy who has just proclaimed himself the victor without knowing even through the usual indirect channels, what he was going to propose. It is Germany who proposed the negotiations. It is Germany who considers herself to be in the superior position. It is Germany who wants to stop the war. Therefore it must be for her, as the initiator of the proceedings, to define in general terms the basis on which she proposes to negotiate."

"There are apparently many misunderstandings, both here and in America, about President Wilson's intentions and that makes it more important that we should make our own position plain. We hope, therefore, that our reply to the American note will be a careful, well-reasoned statement of the position as we understand it, and not a mere hasty dismissal of the American note problems will be discussed."

AWAIT REPLY OF GERMANY IN OFFICIAL FORM

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, Dec. 27.—Germany's reply to President Wilson's peace note had not been received here in official form early today and officials were reserving their comment until they had opportunity to study it. STEAMER

Maryland, Which Was Reported by Wireless as Sinking Has Not Been Located by Searchers.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Nantucket, Mass., Dec. 27.—The steamer Maryland which reported by wireless on Christmas night that she was sinking, had not been found today. The coast guard cutters, Achusnet and Gresham, which had proceeded from Woods Hole and Boston, respectively, to the position approximately 200 miles southeast of the island where the Maryland sounded her distress calls, sent word this morning that they had found no trace of the steamer. The cutters had cruised in those waters for several hours after it became known that the vessel's wireless had been put out of commission, evidently by a flood of water which swept into the engine room.

FRENCH

HAS REPLACED ALSATIAN DIALECT AND ALSO GERMAN

In That Part of Alsace Which Has Been Restored to the French Government.

[Associated Press Correspondence]

With the French Army in Alsace, Dec. 27.—French has replaced Alsatian dialect and German as the language in that section of Alsace restored to France as the result of French military successes. So soon as the blue-clad soldiers occupied the villages and towns, German signs were torn down from the fronts of the stores and replaced by French. Fingerposts along the roads were altered and directions at grade crossings over the railroad tracks were changed. Restaurant bills of fare were written in French instead of German. The titles of public offices were painted over and new designations put in their place. Prices also were transformed into francs and centimes from marks and pfennigs. Most of the municipal officials under German rule were of Prussian origin and fled with the German troops. The other male inhabitants—most of them very old or very young, as all those of military age had been either taken into the German army or had fled to France—had never had experience of local government and were incapable of undertaking the public utilities or caring for the health or sanitary condition of the people. It was found necessary to appoint French administrators and these were chosen from among officers who had been wounded in the war or who had fallen sick during the campaign. In one locality a military mayor was nominated. He was a captain who had lost his right arm in battle. For two years he had carried out the functions of his office and so successfully that the citizens governed by him declare they have never been more wisely ruled.

One of the first tasks undertaken was to set again in motion the educational system which had been interrupted by the hostilities. Classes were formed for the children of both sexes and these were placed in the charge of sisters of a religious order which devotes itself to education. There was some difficulty at first owing to the pupils knowing no other language than their local dialect. They showed such zeal, however, in acquiring French, that within a few weeks the teachers were able to carry on the lessons. When Prince Arthur of Connaught recently visited the classes he was amazed at the change brought about in so short a time.

French officials and the people of Alsace themselves ascribe the readiness of the Alsatians to adopt French ideas and education to the fact that they have in part realized their dream of being rejoined to France. At any rate it is a fact that, although they are still within sound of German guns everywhere in the reconquered territory at present speaks French. The children at their games on the streets use nothing but French expressions. Workmen and workmen going to and from the factories and while engaged there rarely—and then only in the case of elderly people who cannot change their lifelong habits—utter a word in anything except French. In the cafes and hotels and in the stores French is everywhere used, while in the churches the sermons are now preached in French.

TWELVE CITIES

Interest rate charged farmers on their loans.

What this interest rate will be has not definitely been determined. It is limited by law to a maximum of six per cent. The expectation is that it will not exceed 5-1/2 per cent. at first and subsequently may be lowered. Loans on farms are limited by the law to 50 per cent. of the value of the land and may be payable in from five to forty years. As fast as loans are made bonds will be issued to cover them so that at no time, under the present plan will a bank's entire capital be tied up in loans to the detriment of other applicants.

One of the chief tasks now confronting the board is to find experienced employees for the new banks. More than 6,000 applications for positions have been received. The appointments will be exempt from civil service regulations but the board intends to assemble a corps of men experienced in banking.

The head of each bank will be designated as the registrar. They probably will be only residents of the districts involved and preferably attorneys.

"JACK TARS" TO FIRE SALUTE AT INAUGURATION

[Associated Press Telegram]

Columbus, Dec. 27.—Ohio "jack tars" will fire the salute of 17 guns which will be the signal that Governor Cox has been inducted into office for the second time Monday, January 8. The adjutant general's office today arranged to have a shipboard gun from the U. S. S. Dorchester, the training ship used by the Ohio naval militia at Toledo brought to Columbus in charge of a firing squad to be used in firing the salute. Heretofore the Columbus battery has always fired the salute for the inauguration, but this organization is now on the Mexican border.

Adjutant General Bryant announced today that approximately 1,000 Ohio national guardsmen from the First and Seventh Regiments, the Ninth Battalion and a part of the Toledo and Cleveland branches of the naval militia would participate in the inaugural parade. The political club division promises to be the largest ever turned out. More than 60 counties will send delegations. Guernsey county reports 3,000 men coming with three bands.

GERMAN AGENTS

The president's suggestion and laid down her terms, the general view prevailed that the reply was another step forward in the peace movement because it left room for subsequent negotiations.

The United States undoubtedly is expected by Germany to transmit the sense of her reply to the entente. The immediate outcome depends upon whether the allies will modify their determination not to enter a conference before terms have been laid down. It was pointed out that the way had not been closed for Germany to lay down terms as the allies demand. In a diplomatic negotiation of such magnitude and scope, officials do not look for results to be immediately apparent but expect the way to be paved carefully and slowly. The next move will not be determined until after the official text of the reply has been received and carefully considered. President Wilson will discuss it thoroughly with the cabinet probably Friday.

Some officials pointed out that the United States could do nothing further and could not decide on a course until the entente allies have also replied to the note. Their answer has been forecast by entente diplomats here as a courteous recognition of the president's purpose and ideals but probably a refusal to enter into conference without having terms advanced first.

Officials acknowledge their disappointment over Germany's failure to reply directly to the president's suggestion that terms be laid down but declined to hold the view that the door to negotiations must necessarily remain open until the allies themselves close it. There was a carefully studied attitude of refusal to make any statement which might be considered official and an avowed inclination to view the situation hopefully as possible.

The view persisted in Teutonic quarters that Germany's reply would be followed by a highly confidential oral or written communication concerning the terms upon which the central powers are willing to make peace. The German embassy, which repeatedly has made it clear that the central powers were not likely to make public their terms, has received no official advice from Berlin today but definite information regarding the intentions of the Teutonic allies was expected.

Lacking official advice Teutonic diplomats were unable to throw much light upon the manner in which terms might be confidentially appended to the note given out in Berlin. It was regarded as probable that they might be conveyed to President Wilson through Ambassador Gerard. In such event, even the fact that they had been stated, would not be disclosed.

Reports repeated in press dispatches from Rome that Germany had presented to the neutral nations whose service she asked in forwarding peace suggestions sealed packets containing terms were the subject of much comment in diplomatic quarters.

The Rome report had it that the packets were not to be opened and forwarded to Germany's enemies unless they reply to the note of the central powers of December 12 specifically requested terms. In German circles here it was considered more probable that direct information on the subject would be conveyed personally to President Wilson through Ambassador Gerard.

SUPPLIES WERE CONCEALED IN THE CODFISH

[Associated Press Correspondence]

San Juan, Porto Rico, Dec. 20.—Porto Rico has been used as a base of supplies for revolutionary ammunition for Santo Domingo in the belief of United States officials here who recently discovered and confiscated a large quantity of revolver and rifle shells concealed in barrels of codfish and destined for the neighboring republic.

Two arrests were made following the confiscation of the ammunition but when a grand jury investigation followed it was discovered that although the smuggling of ammunition into Santo Domingo was prohibited that there was no punishment provided by the law prohibiting it.

During the administration of President Roosevelt congress passed a joint resolution authorizing the President to issue a proclamation forbidding the sending of munitions of war into Santo Domingo but the proclamation was the only prohibition on record.

Officials here believe that the systematic trafficking in munitions has been broken up.

PREDICT NO INCREASE IN POSTAGE RATE

[Associated Press Telegram]

Washington, Dec. 27.—House leaders predicted today that the proposed increase in postage rates on second class matter, now included in the tentative draft of the postage appropriation bill never would be enacted into law.

Chairman Henry of the rules committee said he believed publishers had made out a good case against the proposed increase, that they would be given the fullest hearing before any rule was reported on it and that he had no desire to gag debate on the proposition on the floor.

This statement coupled with the fact that Postmaster General Burdon recently wrote Committee Chairman the postoffice committee that he was disinclined to push the proposed increase is generally accepted as overshadowing this step.

WHITE GIFTS FOR THE KING; UNION CHURCH

Each one is asked to bring some gift such as fruit, canned goods, salt, potatoes or other vegetables and it will be well taken care of and given to those who are in need. It will pay you to attend.

GEN. JOFFRE

Is Created a Marshal of France by President Poincare—Will Act As Technical Adviser.

[Associated Press Telegram]

Paris, Dec. 27.—In addition to a decree creating General Joffre a marshal of France, President Poincare has signed an order revoking the decree of December 2, 1915 and Dec. 13, 1916. The first of these appointed Marshal Joffre commander-in-chief of all the French forces, except those in the colonies and Morocco, the second said:

"General Joffre commander-in-chief of the French forces, will act as technical adviser to the government in all concerning the direction of the war."

The high command as now settled finally consists of the war committee composed of Premier Briand, General Lyautey, Minister of War, Rear Admiral Lacaze, minister of marine; Albert Thomas, minister of national manufacturers, Alexandre Ribot, minister of finance and President Poincare. The duty of the minister of war is to notify the other ministers and commanding generals concerning the decisions of the committee and to take measures to insure their concerted execution. In addition he is responsible for everything concerning the reparation and maintenance of the nation's military resources.

There are two general commanders, General Nivelle, of the armies of the north and northeast, who also assures a Liaison with the allied staff, and General Sarraill of the armies of the orient, who, as already announced, is no longer answerable to grand headquarters but directly to the minister of war. The press and public are unanimous in welcoming the revival of the dignity of marshal in favor of General Joffre. All agree that he broke the German power once for all by the victory of the Marne and saved the capital of the country from humiliation and despair.

LIFE TERM IN PRISON WITH NO HOPE OF PARDON

[Associated Press Telegram]

Cincinnati, Dec. 27.—"The only reason that would prompt me to grant you a new trial would be that the jury which found you guilty had not dealt severely enough with you. In my opinion your crime was premeditated and it was one of the worst in the criminal annals of this city. Such crimes might prompt sentimental boys to follow your example. My sentence upon you is life imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary without hope of pardon."

Judge Cushing used the above words today in passing sentence upon Harry Toker who shot and killed Mrs. Nannie Beatty, a mission worker of national repute.

OLD CHURCH IS LEASED BY SCHOOL BOARD

Will be Used by Athletic Teams of Public Schools and for Basket Ball Games.

Work of remodeling and converting the old M. E. church, Fourth and Church streets, into a basket ball hall, was begun Wednesday morning by Lloyd G. Millisor, Newark high coach and a gang of students.

New flooring is being laid in the building, bleachers built on two sides of the room and the balcony arranged to handle the fans. When the work is completed the playing floor will be 58x38 and seats enough to accommodate between 500 and 700 persons.

The local basket ball team will open its season January 6 at Glenford, and will play another game away from home before it appears on its new field. The first game in Newark will probably be January 16, according to the arrangements now being made by Coach Millisor. Since Hickey's hall in South Fourth street was leased by a cigar manufacturing concern the basket ball sport in Newark has suffered, but with the new hall, the game promises to be revived and restored to its old popularity.

MRS. ELIZ. WALKER AN ENTHUSIAST FOR NERV-WORTH

Says It "Regulates the Bowels, Tones the Liver, Quiets the Nerves, Builds Up the System."

Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, 565 Grandville street, mother of David C. Walker, has gotten the most wonderful results from Nerv-Worth. Mrs. Walker says:

"I had a general breakdown of the system, the same as most aged persons have. My back was weak had severe nervous spells, stomach out of order—in fact the entire system was out of order."

"I purchased one bottle of Nerv-Worth of Mr. Evans and can truthfully say have had very satisfactory results from it. I advise any elderly person who is not feeling just right to try this remarkable medicine and find out for themselves what this great medicine will do. I find that it regulates the bowels, tones the liver, quiets the nerves and in general builds up the whole system."

"MRS. ELIZABETH WALKER." This telling endorsement substantiates the claim so often made that Nerv-Worth is the world's greatest tonic for the run-down nerves of aged folks, as many an endorsement printed in these columns heretofore has done.

AUDITORIUM.

This is a Secret!

In one scene of William Fox's new photoplay, "The Vixen," George Clarke has to play a game of dominoes with Mary Martin. That was how his pet domino trick came to be revealed to the public.

Mr. Clarke has a formula by which he can tell the exact number of spots on any domino which one may hold in the hand. Here it is:

Let a friend draw any domino at random from the set. Then tell him to multiply either of the numbers of spots by five, add seven, double the sum, add the second number of spots, and tell you the result. Then subtract 144, and the remaining digits tell the number of the two spots.

Thus, if the friend holds the domino marked 6 and 3, he may take the number 6. Multiplying this by 5 gives 30; the addition of 7 makes 37; twice this number gives 74; adding 3 makes 77. This is the number that your friend will tell you. You subtract 14, and the result, 63, is composed of the two digits, 6 and 3, which represents the number of spots on the domino.

George Clarke almost broke up work for the day at the Fox studios by refusing to divulge his secret until the day was over.

"The Vixen" will be seen at the Auditorium today only, together with Pathe Weekly.

Field's Minstrels.

Topical matters always figure conspicuously in the fun-making of the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels, and this has become a feature eagerly looked forward to by the thousands of patrons, because the Dean of Minstrelsy has always succeeded in making his travesties of such good humor they are appreciated by all.

The funny side of present day subjects are shown up this season in the burlesque, "The Battle of the Bats"—Our National Pastime, or Chasing Villa.

The base ball game is one between The Tar Babies and The Villa Bandits. On the bleachers are such notables as President Pilson, Jillum Brennings Wryan, Teddy Rosenfelt, Villa's Cousin, and others. The game brings up all sorts of arguments, local, national, and international. The entire company is employed in this merriment spectacle, and everything combines to produce gales of laughter.

The Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels are at the Auditorium theatre tomorrow afternoon and evening. Seats now selling. Watch for the parade at noon.

It Pays to Advertise.

The most effective advertising today is mouth to mouth endorsement by playgoers. For instance, New York City is not playing the part it once did. The day is past when the public will only accept a play that has had a season's run in New York.

Probably the most talked of play in this country today is the recent creation by Eugene Kirby of "One Girl's Experience," which comes to the Auditorium on Saturday afternoon and evening. This sweet, delicate, romantic play demands as its star a woman of appealing feminine type which has helped in a great measure to create its great success. It is a play of the people and for the people and constructed for the special purpose of meeting with the demands of the people. It appeals to the millionaire and the pauper, to the rich and poor, to the debutante and the working girl, to the loved and the unloved, to the young and the old. It does not offend, it does not preach but it just tells the public with a wholesome, hearty, American sympathy for "One Girl's Experience."

"The Ginger Girls." One of the fastest and merriest shows ever presented on The Wheel appears for an engagement at the Auditorium theatre, beginning Monday matinee featuring Ben Small, the well known German comic, who is said to be better than ever this season in the two act and five scene comedy, "The Gay Modiste and in Alaska," written and staged by himself and George Wagner. Al Dupont, John D. Bohman, Marjorie Chase, Mabel Lyness, the prima donna, prano and Niblo and Spencer, the extraordinary singers, dancers and last but not least Nellie Greenwood, positively the liveliest soubrette in her line as fast and vivacious as ever you saw. A big chorus as nifty and pretty as they can be who render innumerable musical numbers and ensembles with a precision and such sweet harmonizing voices they never fail to bring down the house with the strength and beauty of their voices. Musical specialties, revelation in scenic and electrical effects, wonderful changes, nifty costumes of the very latest designs, clean, classy comedy that keeps the audience in an uproar throughout the performance. Seats now selling.

ALHAMBRA.

Tonight and Tomorrow.

A typical English telephone is used in "The Red Whiskered Man," the seventh episode of Vitagraph's mile-a-minute motor series, "The Scarlet Runner" from the novel of the same name by C. N. and A. M. Williamson. This series which features Earl Williams is shown at the Alhambra theatre every Wednesday and Thursday.

Friday and Saturday.

One of the most difficult tasks ever undertaken by the Lasky company was the securing of types for its adaptation of "Oliver Twist," which will be the Paramount picture at the Alhambra on Friday and Saturday with the charming Marie Doro as Oliver, supported by an excellent cast.

"It is wonderful how interested everyone is in the production. The whole studio has been excited about it, and everyone, even the photographer, talks cockney. With Mr. Bosworth, Mr. Marshall, Mr. Hatton, Miss Wilson and Mr. Neill, I know I have been given an excellent cast, and it is my only hope that we have preserved the story of Oliver for future generations, and that our photodramatic version will live as long in the minds of the public as will Dickens' story itself."

LYRIC.

The greatest musical treat that has come to Newark in many years, The Old Southland Sextette, appearing at the Lyric theatre last evening, made several hundred people forget their troubles in feats of music such as have never been equaled here. A fitting climax, "The Stars and Stripes Forever," following nearly one hour of superb negro mirth and melody brought the audience to its feet acclaiming approval of them. This will be their last day in Newark so don't fail to see them. There will also be a change of photo play.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys; they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water-drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and youthfulness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

BOWSER-KILONIS ARGUMENT WILL BE BEST OF SEASON

Mat Fans Are Assured Plenty of "Fireworks" When Light Heavyweight Meets Middleweight King Friday Night.

John Kilonis, Greek Demon, and international light heavyweight champion, is taking no chance of losing his appearance forfeit of $25, to meet Paul Bowser, world's middleweight champion, Friday night at the Auditorium theatre.

Kilonis is making Newark his home, until the night of the bout. The match between the demon and "Bull" Montana, at Lancaster Wednesday night has been called off by the latter, who claims he injured his right foot, while training for the bout.

So John will do his training for the big argument with the local man, in this city.

Bowser is training harder for Friday's bout than any in several weeks, as he realizes he has a tough proposition on his hands. The bout is made doubly hard for the middleweight king on account of the match being at catch weights, which will give Kilonis about 15 pounds advantage. Paul, however, hopes to overcome this advantage by staying with his heavier opponent beyond the two hour limit, when he will only have to secure one fall to win the decision.

But Kilonis is "hep" to Bowser's game and will endeavor to stop the latter long before the one fall to win clause becomes effective. The first meeting between these two men resulted in a victory for Kilonis. At that time the match was made at catch weights and the Greek after two hours wrestling, slammed Bowser to the mat.

It was a hard fall and copped the decision for the Demon, as Paul was unconscious for more than 17 minutes and unable to continue the argument. Last season Kilonis appeared in Newark and agreed to throw Bowser and two other grapplers in two hours. John Heckelbery and Vance Wallace worried the international champ for 15 minutes and then the local pride stepped on the mat. Instead of Kilonis throwing Bowser, he came near having his own shoulders nailed to the mat, and lost the decision by reason of his failure to throw the three men in the stipulated time.

A week later Kilonis made 165 pounds ringside and Bowser defeated him two falls in three, by the aid of the famous toe hold. The Greek champion claimed that he was weakened by making the fight, and could not show to good advantage.

Several weeks ago he asked for a return bout, catch weights and winner take all of the gate receipts, after the expenses of the bout had been deducted. Bowser thought the proposition over carefully, figured he was heavier and stronger than last season and signed articles for the match.

The coming show will undoubtedly be the best exhibition of "Fireworks" ever seen in the Auditorium and whoever is the winner, he will know that he has been in a wrestling match. A good preliminary card is being arranged to balance up the card and make it an all star attraction. Tickets for the show are on sale at the various cigar stores and the Auditorium box office and already a large block of stage seats have been sold.

The first preliminary will start promptly at 8:15 p. m.

Bowling

Pastime Alleys.

All of the leagues will reopen their schedules next week after their lay-off for the holiday season. There will be two very interesting match games this week when the Pastime team bowls the Mt. Vernon team on Thursday night and the "Mysterious" Five of Columbus on Friday night. These two visiting aggregations are composed of very good bowlers, the latter team being picked by Dr. Barrick to avenge the two defeats handed his All Stars by the Pastime team. Games will start promptly at 7 p. m. The holiday tournament which closes New Year's Day has 55 entries to date. The totals practically remain the same as last week but there are liable to be some changes during the final days.

ESTABLISHED IN 1870.

Entered as Second Class Matter

Newark, Ohio, under the Act of March 4, 1879.

Price of Paper.

The recent hearings before the Federal Trade Commission on the price of print paper hit a vital issue. Paper producers and representatives of the Publishers' Association are now trying to work out some plan for a more equitable distribution of the supply.

The high price of paper has been a condition vitally affecting one of the most important industries. Many of the smaller papers have had to suspend. They would have been ashamed to put in a few years ago. The producers of paper should not kill the goose that lays the golden egg. They should not stick on higher prices than are necessary. If they do they will hurt their own industries. Many publishers who have been running on very cheap grades of paper will quite likely continue to use these grades after the exigency has passed.

They will argue that the public has become used to cheap paper, that it is satisfied if it gets the news and is not fussy about the kind of material it is printed on. If, as seems likely, this results in a permanent use of cheaper grades of stock in thousands of offices, the manufacturers will suffer more than anyone else. It is the usual rule in all processes that the cheaper the stock the less profit in it.

The suspension of a large number of the smaller papers is a loss to a great many localities. These little sheets did their work as exponents and leaders of community life. The fact that they had been able to exist on a basis of moderate paper prices showed that they performed a service and filled a need. Public sentiment should sustain them. In so far as public authorities have any control over the paper trade, they can be sure that public sentiment will demand the most liberal treatment possible for the publishers, and will feel that high paper prices are a tax on popular education and civic betterment. Some Ohio publishers today are paying 5-12, 6 and even 7 cents a pound for paper. Last year the price was 2 cents a pound.

Cost of Higher Education.

The way higher institutions of learning are pleading for money is almost staggering. From rich and hoary institutions in the older states, down to the struggling little schools of the mountains and prairie, they're all doing it. Here comes the University of Illinois as one instance with the need of $5,000,000 more for buildings in the next ten years. Many others have equally ambitious programs.

The cost of higher education is tremendously increasing. Part of this of course is legitimate. Building materials are high and labor is high. There must be the most perfect of heating, plumbing, and ventilation.

ating systems. Buildings must be architecturally beautiful, and expensive architects must be employed. The class rooms must have chemical and scientific equipment enough to operate a factory.

The average uneducated man can't understand all this. It looks wasteful to him. But there are plenty of wealthy men who can well afford these fine buildings and they do add dignity to college life. They show a noble interest in education, and the money could be spent much worse. But the quality of instruction should never be sacrificed to get fine buildings. The most elaborate equipment is after all but a minor issue. The education of the boy is not in re-torts and chemicals and electrical machines, but in the inspiration that flows from mind to mind. One man with the gift of imparting enthusiasm is worth more than the finest machine ever laid.

Also the colleges need to do more for the boy of small means. It is not an easy thing for boys to work their way through. It can be done and is done by thousands, but it is a severe strain and some of them ruin their health by doing it. The best monument to a giver is not some palace of a study hall, but a well invested fund whose yearly dividends help along some struggling but promising scholar.

Some one asks what became this year of the woman who got dinner for a holiday party of 25 or more people? Well, she is laid up with rheumatism, while her daughter concluded that her family of four could more easily be served at a hotel.

The question is asked what has become of the boy who used to be overjoyed on receiving a wheelbarrow for a gift? Well, he has grown up and finds his family convinced that an automobile would be the suitable present.

Anyway Mr. Hughes enjoyed his Christmas without listening to 117 different reasons why John Smith should or should not be made postmaster of Huckleberry Corners.

It is not safe to remove Christmas presents upstairs before two weeks have passed, and they should not be stowed away in the attic until after two months.

Peace is quite a calamity from the Wall Street point of view, as the fall in prices has indicated, but the brokers expect to grin and bear it resolutely.

It is believed that by this time the investigators of high prices are all equipped with roll top desks, padded leather chairs, and Saxony rugs.

As they look forward toward the January 1st bills, many people rejoice that they are possessed of a wide and deep waste basket.

Perhaps the people who make such fun of New Year's resolutions feel more comfortable if other people also have their little vices.

After saying Happy New Year to all their friends, any people settle down to talk about the lugubrious condition of the nation.

Owing to the non-arrival of their red and yellow silk sashes, the noble Carranza troops have had to quit the pursuit of Villa.

Learning that Turkish tobacco can no longer be secured many of our men think it is tie for this wicked war to stop.

Regret is felt for the follies of the year past and anticipation for those of the coming year.

The Advocate's TALKING POT

Gifts.
May these be yours.
The Gifts that make the Dreamers into Doors.
The Gift to work
Through Joy and Sorrow, Light or Dark,
To play, with all your soul and heart,
A manly part!

The Gift of Discontent, to keep you diving
Forward and up, forever striving For something better in the days hereafter.

The Gift of Kindness and the Gift of Laughter.
And all the gifts of Love and Faith and Friends.
Of Justice and of Truth,
And in your heart, until life's journey ends.

The Priceless Gift of Youth, Hope that inspires and Courage that endures.
May all these Gifts be Yours!

The Passing Year.

It is customary for the newspapers at this time of the year to present reviews of the year that has gone. A notable story of progress is always presented. Every field of effort nowadays is full of bright and clever people. Astonishing advances are being recorded in science, economics, politics, and education.

The one black spot is Europe,
with its reversion to barbarous war.
The year 1916 will be one of the great red dates, and many people will feel that the world is receding as they look at this bloody record.

Yet it is the fact of history, whether personal or national, that suffering always brings clearer vision. Many illusions pass away. A great many outward notions have been cherished by the people of Europe. Perhaps after this bitter experience they will see the falsity of divine rights of kings, government by hereditary aristocracies, and other principles that the world should have outgrown long ago.

Christmas Gifts.

The best of receptive moods at this Christmas season is that which consider not the value of the gift, but the spirit of the giving. Let us be thankful for kind thoughts.—Columbus Dispatch.

And, too, kind thoughts have another advantage which will be immediately apparent to those who have been distressed by the advancing prices.

To the Willies.

By wireless to Savville.
Well, those three of a kind small Wil-lies are back again, they say:
With a boom, blif, bang, this rough-neckgang are ready for the fray:
Now, don't let them fool you, readers,
I know their little game:
They wish to gain your sympathy, so place on me the blame.

While I am willing to admit that this war I did begin
By calling them just sillies, was that a dandy sin?
Deserving of such awful threats, to mutilate them kill.
And with my wangled poor remains the Melling Pot to fill?

And I'll leave it to the readers if it wasn't up to me
To say out and defend myself from these vengeful Willies three.
Now just take note, I've not their goat,
that's why they are so bitter.
They'd like to run me out and then say that I was a quitter.

They dared to say the Melling Pot boarded up in peace and quiet Till I butted in and spilled the beans and caused an awful riot:
Don't you believe it, readers dear, with answers they are doing
They were scrapping ere I said a word,
now hear the fellows fib.

I watched the scrap and then came in,
and thereby roused their ire
And now the three are after me and keeping hot the fire:
But this lone germ that cannot burn,
not even on the freeze it,
And if to boil it they would try,
They'll have to come and seize it.

I'll make them go a pace not slow,
though they are three to one;
I fear them not, the Melling Pot will,
when the race is done.
The prize award without regard to size or yet to sex.
And 'twill please me, but you will see, the Willies it will vex.

If the M. P. ed. will give that spread and ask us out to dine,
I hope to meet and gladly greet the others and I, Gotmine:
But don't you see the Willies three would sure kick up a row.
So let them stay at home and play; we don't want them, anyhow!

Some day I hope to meet those boys
and tell them face to face, How mean they are, instead of in
"twelve dollars' worth of space":
Now if the M. P. editor of me is growing tired
He only has to say the word,—I'll quit before I'm fired! —Forget It.

Misery in Back, Headache and Pain in Limbs.

Dear Mr. Editor—For more than a year I suffered with misery in the back, dull headache, pain in the limbs, was somewhat constipated and slept poorly at night until I was about ready to collapse. Seeing an account of the wonderful qualities of "Anuric," prepared by Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., I sent for a box, and before using the whole box I felt and still feel improved. My sleep is refreshing, misery reduced, and life is not the drag it was before. I most cheerfully recommend this remedy to sufferers from like ailments.

W. A. ROBERTS, Harris Station, Ohio.

NOTE: You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists of Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for kidney complaints, and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.

Up to this time, "Anuric" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing Tablet, Dr. Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

I know of one or two leading druggists in town who have managed to procure a supply of "Anuric" for their anxious customers in and around this locality. If not obtainable send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package or 50 cents for full treatment.

EDITOR—Please insert this letter in some conspicuous place in your paper.

JEAN COOPER, THE YOUNG SONGBIRD

Jean Cooper, Columbia's latest contract acquisition, is one of Walter Damrosch's "finds." He discovered the young songbird at a Spring Festival in Mississippi six years ago, and was instrumental in starting her on a most successful musical career.

Today Miss Cooper is one of the most popular artists featured on the programs of the St. Louis Symphony, the Minneapolis Symphony, the Schola Cantorum and the famous Hot Biltmore Musicales.

Miss Cooper's singing of her initial record, "Hushen," just released by Columbia is a beautiful confirmation of Mr. Damrosch's judgment, and a pleasing demonstration of one of the most exquisite contralto voices that has ever delighted the musical recording world.

Another Yuletide Cheer from a Neal-Cured Man

Victims of the Drink Habit Can Find Happiness Just as this One Did

No one deserves a happier or more prosperous New Year than you," is what a graduate of the Neal Institute writes to the Superintendent of that splendid institute for the cure of alcoholism.

"I spent the happiest holidays that have fallen to my lot in thirty years caused chiefly by my having been a graduate of the Neal Home of which you have charge. The good work done for me there, through your wonderful treatment and the many kind words spoken to me, both by yourself and valuable attendants, are indelibly impressed upon my memory and imbedded in my heart. There is no better friend nor stauncher advocate of the Neal Institute than your humble servant."

The Neal Institute is a home where all comforts and privacy are enjoyed. The environments of the historic old home of John D. Rockefeller are all cheerful and all patients leave with feelings of gratitude such as are expressed in the quoted letter of appreciation.

The Neal Treatment is a physician's prescription—a harmless, vegetable remedy, taken internally, with no dangerous hypodermic injections. The results are tonic in effect and in three days all desire for liquor is changed to dislike for everything alcoholic.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, December 27.—A steady drizzle of rain has been falling which has packed the snow and turned the sidewalks into miniature canals with icy beds. Walking is difficult and if the predicted fall in the temperature should come tonight, the annual glacier will retard pedestrianism in the village, as it has done for the last four or five years at about this time.

The King's Daughters' rooms were open all day Tuesday, December 26, for the use of the A. F. W. Only a limited number of workers were able to attend, but Mrs. J. D. Thompson, chairman of the needlework committee, reports a good day's work by the five faithful members, who came in the morning and remained until 4:30 p. m., making two pajama suits and finishing all the odds and ends left from the last meeting.

The Presbyterian church is open each evening this week for prayer services in preparation for the evangelistic meetings which are to begin on December 31 under the direction of Rev. Edward Wright of Philadelphia, a successful evangelist.

Prof. R. W. Soule of Denison conservatory is to lead the singing.

Mr. W. A. Holmes, chairman of the Granville public library board, reports that the library is in a flourishing condition; that Miss Chamberlain is most efficient as librarian, courteous and considerate of all visitors; and that the rapidly increasing patronage, with the numerous additions of books by gift and purchase render the facilities quite inadequate. Some place soon must be found where more shelf room may be secured. The library extension course of lectures is proving a great success. The latest gift of books are from Dr. Daniel Rogers, twenty volumes; Mrs. F. H. Buxton, nine volumes; Miss Gladys Spencer, one volume; Mr. John Hundley, one volume.

Among the Christmas callers at the home of Mrs. Harriett Baker in West Broadway, were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pence of Hebron; Miss Shaffer of Huntsville, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin, Mrs. Emmert of Newark; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morrow of Willing, W. Va., and Miss Edna Riggs of Painesville, O.

Prof. T. S. Johnson has gone to Cleveland to attend the Phi Gamma Delta "Ecclesia," the national convention of the fraternity, as section chief of this district.

Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Rose of Andover are visiting their son and daughter, Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Johnson.

Dr. R. S. Colwell has gone to Washington, D. C., on a business trip of a week's duration. Mrs. Colwell left this morning for Columbus to join Mrs. J. C. Campbell's house party at a luncheon today.

Miss Rachel Colwell of Morgantown, W. Va., and Miss Emily Colwell of Columbus, departed this morning for their respective destinations.

Prof. and Mrs. K. H. Eschman with their little daughter are in Dresden where they will visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Frazier and Mr. Henry Eschman.

Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Eddy of Zanesville, with their children spent Christmas at the home of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Harford.

Mrs. T. H. Buxton will entertain the Winter Picnic club at dinner this evening at her home in East Broadway.

Every Day Etiquette

"I cannot attend an afternoon tea I have been invited to. What regrets should I send?" asked Mario.

"Your visiting card, mailed so as to arrive on the day of the tea, or sent by a messenger or some friend who attends, is all the regrets required for an afternoon tea," advised her aunt.

"Is it proper to speak to a young man on the street whom I met at a private party, but to whom I was not introduced?" inquired Mario.

"Since you met this boy at a private party you may speak if you wish; if at a public affair you should not recognize him," replied her sister.

Milady's Boudoir

If your lashes are thin and straggly, or do not grow properly, your eyes will become inflamed, for your eyelashes are protection for your eyes. You cannot have a luxurious fringe of eyelashes if you don't keep your eyes and eyelids in a healthy condition. If the eyes are weak and strained, the lashes are generally irregular, with tiny bald spots here and there. So the first thing you must do to acquire the desirable fringe is to keep your eyes as free Consistency.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs.
Torkins, "did you forget to bring the things I told you to bring from the store?"

"No. This is one time I carried out instructions to the letter. Here's the whole bundle."

"Oh, I'm so sorry. I've changed my mind about wanting. I was sure you'd forget as usual. It's so hard to depend on a man!"—Washington Star.

Didn't Need It.
A book canvasser went into a barber shop and asked the proprietor if he could sell him an encyclopedia.

"What's that?" asked the barber.
"It's a book that contains information on every subject in the world."

There was a victim in the chair, and he put in feebly: "He doesn't need it."

TINY FLASHLIGHTS SAVE 11 AS VESSEL SINKS IN MID-OCEAN

The Pio IX sinking and nine members of crew who were saved.

The Spanish steamer Pio IX was wrecked in mid-ocean and so rough was the sea that life-boats could not be launched. In response to a wireless call the Spanish liner Buenos Aires came to the rescue. It was night and the crew of the Pio IX were floating about the sea on the wreckage. Two of the wrecked sailors had tiny pocket flashlights. These were used to such good effect that rescuing parties were able to locate and pick up eleven of the men.

GLAZE STORM IN MICHIGAN; DETROIT IS HIT

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 27.—Railroad and interurban traffic and wire communication throughout lower Michigan were affected by the glaze storm last night and the thaw this morning. Intercity cars leaving Detroit had difficulty getting through the outskirts of the city.
Many streets were flooded.

Local telegraph offices reported much wire trouble. Wire conditions were said to be bad in nearly every section of the peninsula but the worst conditions prevailed in the Jackson district.

There were many street car tieups in Detroit this forenoon. Dense fog, slippery tracks, flooded streets, stalled automobiles and heavy traffic made transportation unusually difficult.

England's Most Beautiful Village.

When Sir John Gorse succeeded his brother in his Wiltshire property he became the owner of what is held, in the west country at any rate, to be the most beautiful village in England. All visitors to Bath are supposed to have misused their opportunities unless they have been to Castle Combe, and indeed the sweet little place is so extensively visited, although it is five and a half miles from any railway, that during the summer months provision is made on the last day of the week for from 800 to 1,000 trippers. The surrounding scenery is not less picturesque than the village itself, and to those who are interested in such matters there is also the attraction of a long history. The church of Castle Combe, which is ancient, has been restored without being spoiled.—Westminster Gazette.

Balzac and Dumas Literary Foes.

It is said that Balzac detested Dumas.
Once he brought to the Siecle the manuscript of a novel, which was to follow
"Les Trois Mousquetaires," then being published. He asked to be paid 2 1/2 francs a line. The director of the journal hesitated. "You see, M. Dumas is being paid only 2 francs a line." "If you are giving 2 francs to that negro
I shall get out!" And Balzac stalked off.

Dumas was not ignorant of Balzac's feelings toward him and did not spare him. In the foyer of the Odon theater Balzac was talking loudly in a group of literary men. "When I have written myself out as a novelist I shall go to playwriting." "You can begin right away," called out Dumas.

Won't Give Them an Opening.
"I don't ask people how they are any more."
"Why not?"

"I've decided it is better to take it for granted that they are well than to give them a chance to spend half an hour of my time telling me about their ailments."—Detroit Free Press.

Its Vocabulary.

"That parrot of theirs! Why, it rattles off all of the gossip of the neighborhood!"

"Yes. When it was learning to talk they forgot to take it out of the room
the day the sewing society met."— Browning's Magazine.

Waters of the Pacific.
To remove the water of the Pacific ocean it would require the filling of a tank a mile wide, a mile deep and a mile long every day for 410 years.

Just Acquainted.

"Do you know her very well?"
"Not very. I've met her only once or twice and don't know a thing that she's wrong with her."—Detroit Free Press.

LET US AGAIN REMIND YOU

—That if you wish a COMPLETE record of all your financial transactions for 1917, you need to open a checking account NOW, before the year begins.

—If you once try the plan of keeping a bank account and paying by check, you will never go back to the old careless, losing method of paying bills in cash, often failing to get receipts and paying the same bill twice more often than you imagine.

—You do not need a large sum to start a checking account. Begin with what you have and increase your balance as you are able.

BIG DELEGATION FROM THIS CITY TO HONOR FULTON

Many From Various Parts of County Will Attend Inaugural Ceremonies

The general committee of arrangements for Licking county's participation in the ceremonies incident to the inauguration of James M. Cox as governor, W. D. Fulton of Newark as secretary of state and other Democratic state officers, expect that enough will go from Newark to justify the making of a special train from this city, the time of departure to be announced later.
The Buckeye band has been secured to head the delegation which in point of numbers and enthusiasm will be the greatest ever sent to the Capital City for a similar event. Word comes from Cambridge from Harry Amos, editor of The Jeffersonian, that Guernsey county will send a delegation of about 800, as the Democrats there are overflowing with enthusiasm over the fact, that never before, within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, did Guernsey give a majority for both national and state Democratic tickets, Wilson and Cox both carrying the county.

WILL REQUIRE SEVEN WEEKS TO MAKE REPAIRS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Dec. 27.—Although repairs to the damaged turbine of the new battleship Arizona will require about seven weeks to complete, the damage is not nearly as great as was feared, it was learned today. Hundreds of blades are being assembled to take the places of the broken ones and the turbine has already been cleared of the smashed pieces of copper. The Arizona which is now at the New York navy yard easily made the required 21 knots an hour and gives promise, according to her officers of being one of the easiest ships in the navy to handle.

SPLendid LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Barnesville, Ohio, 12/26, 1916.
Geo. H. Mosser, Newark, Ohio.
Dear Mr. Mosser:
Your favor of the 21st at hand and allow me to say, in reply, that I wish to assure you that we will ever remember the kindness and courtesy with which we were treated while in Newark. Every little detail was looked after and every want provided for.
We left Newark feeling that the most successful session in the history of the Ohio State Grange had just closed and those of us who had been attending State Grange for years know that the local arrangements can make or mar the success of such a meeting.
I wish to thank you, your Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary club, the citizens of Newark and all others who contributed to the success of our meeting. Especially do we appreciate the attitude of your local papers, who were considerate of our every wish and gave our convention splendid publicity.
As I travel around over the state, since our meeting, I hear such remarks as this: "The town that follows Newark next year will have to go some," and I agree. You may be equalled, but never excelled.
Wishing you and your organization a happy and prosperous year and one full of service in your section of the state,
Very truly,
(Signed) L. J. TABER, Master Ohio State Grange.

RAILROADS

WILL IGNORE ADAMSON LAW IN MAKING UP THEIR PAYROLLS

Say There Will Be No Compromise On Hours or Wages Until Issue Determined.

New York, Dec. 27.—Pending the decision of the supreme court of the United States upon the question of the constitutionality of the Adamson eight-hour law, the railroad managers declare they will not be parties to any action that might tend to nullify or anticipate any way the court proceedings. The railway workers of the country are being notified that the Adamson law will be ignored in making up payrolls after January 1, and "until such time as the issue is finally determined in the courts."
The notices contain the first formal declaration that pending the decision of the court there would be no compromise on hours or wages between the railroads and the brotherhoods.
The notice posted by the New York Central is typical of that used throughout the country. It reads: "For the information of employees concerned below will be found a copy of the agreement entered into between the attorneys for the United States and the railroads concerning the Adamson eight-hour law now before the supreme court of the United States."
"Attention is called to Section 5, in which it is agreed that, beginning January 1, the books and accounts shall be kept in such a manner that if the constitutionality of the Adamson law is upheld the men shall promptly receive any back pay due them under the decision of the court."
"In accordance with this understanding this company will pay its employees under present schedules until such a decree is handed down by the supreme court."

ITCHING IRRITATION EASILY CURED

When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting, greasy ointment. Try Hokara, a pure and simple cream, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acid and which is so cleanly that it does not soil the linen.
Its power to instantly relieve any irritation of the skin and make it soft, white and beautiful is almost miraculous.
Not only do minor skin troubles like pimples, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., quickly disappear, but the worst ulcers or cases of salt rheum or eczema are cleansed and healed by this wonderful skin food.
In order that any one may try Hokara at small expense, Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store are selling a liberal-sized jar at 35c, and in addition guarantee to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it.—Advertisement.
